TEACHER FEEDBACK

Bridport Central School 2021 - 2022

I feel students learn to build relationships with other adults in the community. Also, they build on their relationships.
— teacher

My students benefit from the time with an adult and reading practice.
— teacher

I honestly appreciate that my students enjoy reading with Everybody Wins!.
— teacher

My students continue to be excited to participate. Students were eager to share about their mentors and the stories they read and games they play.
— teacher

I would like my students to continue to participate in Everybody Wins!

PARENT FEEDBACK

Bridport Central School 2021 - 2022

She is always excited for Thursdays because she can't wait to keep reading the books they read together. She is sometimes just plain excited at being able to see her and tell her about her week.
— parent

It has helped her greatly to have it one on one again. She connected with her mentor well and enjoyed the books they read.
— parent

It gave her something to look forward to, especially when at home and not going places very often.
— parent

My daughter is always ready on her Everybody Wins! day of the week, talking about it first thing in the morning and it would be the first thing she talked about that day when she got home from school.

MENTOR FEEDBACK

Bridport Central School 2021 - 2022

The small anecdotes we share with one another at the beginning of our session prior to beginning reading have really become moments I look forward to.

— mentor

One of my favorite parts is being with young children who are the future.

— mentor

I recommend the program highly to anyone who wants to experience the joy of reading and spending time with a young person.

— mentor

I really enjoy working with my mentee; she is always so engaged in the text and never fails to share her insights and opinions.
